ORDER OF JUDGMENT AS TO DYNAMEX OPERATIONS EAST, INC.

THIS MATTER came to be heard before the Honorable Russell Sugarmon on October 30, 2001. After statements from counsel for the Plaintiff, the testimony of the Plaintiff, testimony from Barbara J. Mlady by Affidavit without objection, and upon the entire record as a whole, the Court finds that it is appropriate that the Plaintiff be awarded a total judgment against the Defendant, Dynamex Operations East, Inc., in the amount of $25,750.00. Said total amount represents a total of $24,900.00 in compensatory and punitive damages and an additional award of $850.00 in attorney fees pursuant to the Tennessee Consumer Protection Act and Tennessee 16-15-501(d)(3) which allows a total judgment in excess of $25,000.00 for attorney fees.

The Court also finds that it is appropriate that this matter be dismissed, with prejudice, as to Defendant, United of Omaha Life Insurance Company, and all costs should be assessed against the Defendant, Dynamex Operations East, Inc. for which execution may issue.

IT IS THEREFORE, ORDERED ADJUDGED AND DECREED.
